HAMILTON TRACK TEAM WINS THIRD CONFERENCE TITLE

Pi Delt Proposes Blanket Subscription for Four Leading Publications

BLANKET SUBSCRIPTION PLAN TO BE OFFERED AT MEETING OF UNDERGRADUATES THURSDAY

$7.50 Would Obtain Four Publications For Subscriber

ANNUAL IN DANGER

Large Portion of Student Body Must Subscribe to Carry Project

NEEDS SUPPORT OF 300

Future of "Hamiltonian" Will Be Assured if Plan Goes Through

The Hamilton chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, with the approbation of the Executive Council of the Undergraduate Association, Thursday morning will introduce to the undergraduates of the College a plan for a club subscription covering the four leading campus publications, Hamilton Life, the "Hamiltonian", the "Hamilton Literary Magazine", and the "Royal Gaboon". The club subscription plan, which would need the support of 300 subscriptions in order to be successful, will be set before the student body for approval. Should the undergraduates see fit to act favorably upon the plan, it will go into effect next fall.

The four leading campus publications, under their present rates of subscrpition, if all are regularly subscribed to, cost the subscriber $11.50. The proposed club subscription would offer the four publications at $7.50, providing 300 such subscriptions be secured. At present, and in recent years, all the publications excepting Hamilton Life, have either lost money or have made just enough money to cover expenses and have left little or no compensation to the editors

Plans Completed For Commencement

Plans for Hamilton's one hundred and twentieth commencement exercises which will be held Monday, June 13, have been recently completed by the class of 1932. Bradford W. Sherwood, '82, who has acted as permanent secretary of his class will be the year's half-century annalist.

Activities will formally begin on Friday, June 10, with a meeting of the Board of Trustees. This will be closely followed by the McKinney Prize Declamation Contest and a dramatization by the Charlatans of A. A. Milne's mystery play, "The Perfect Alibi." The Senior Ball, wtih music by Joe Hayme's Brunswick recording orchestra, will conclude the program for the day.

Saturday, June 11, will be largely devoted to meetings of the Alumni Society and reunions of fraternities and societies. The President's reception will be held in the Library during the afternoon, and the Clark Prize Exhibition is scheduled to take place in the Chapel that evening. Following this contest there will be the annual meetings of individual fraternties.

Sunday morning has been reserved for Baccalaureate services in the Chapel. Immediately following, the seniors will hold their cass day exercises, which include the planting of the ivy. At 5:00 the Choir will give a recital of choral music.

The one hundred and twentieth commencement exercises will begin Monday morning at 10:00. Following the graduation program an alumni luncheon will be held in Commons.

PRIZE PLAYS TO BE PRESENTED

Competition Winners Will Be Staged During Commencement Week

The Executive Committee of the Charlatans have decided to present sometime during Commencement week the two prize plays of the Charlatan Competition, "Save My Child," written by William Sloane, '32, the winner in this year's contest, and "The White Haired Boys," Paul J. Freidlander's play of last year. The plays will be presented for undergraduates, friends, and returning alumni.

Sloane's play, which was selected over several others in the competition, marks a departure from the conventional type of prize competition entries. It is very amusing and a clever bit of writing in the operatic vein, a type made famous by the "Mikado" of Gilbert and Sullivan. It has twelve characters, six of whom will form choruses, whose refrains are catchy and amusing. The scene of the skit is laid in Houghton Female Seminary, in Clinton, about 1870, and portrays the misfortunes of an unmarried father, and a sadder but wiser student of Hamilton College.

The part of George, the young unfortunate, will be portrayed by William G. Roehrick, '34. The president of the seminary, a venerable personage, "with a slight stoop," and a "former professor of mathematics," is the part assigned to Gardner Smith, '34, The General, a sort of man of all work about the institution, an individual possessing a jutting chin, leather breeches, and leather jacket, who puts "Duty before Decency," is the part played by Judson Hall, '35. A chorus of 3 Minions, or helpers to the General, is Judson Springstead, '34, J. H. Bates, '35, and Henry Green, '35. The Committee of Ways and Means, subordinates of the President, are the parts of Paul Abbott, '32, Judson Humeston, '32, and H. E. Morrill, '35. The three feminine roles, sisters of marked physical resemblance, are assigned to C. E. Constantinides, '34, J. W. Bicknell, '35, and K. H. Van Tassel, '35.

The second play to be presented, "The White Haired Boys," by Paul J. Freidlander, '31, has been postponed several times, but the same cast as originally selected will present the piece. Parts have been given to J. D. Matthew Ahearn, '35, Cranston Covell, '35, Waterman Baldwin, '33, Michael J. Timko, '33, and Edwin F. Olszewski, '33. This play endeavors to present a view of fraternity life on the Hill as it is supposed to exist.

This prize is awarded annually to the student author of a one-act play dealing with college life which is accepted by the Executive Committee of the Charlatans and presented by them on the stage. Its purpose is to encourage dramatic composition among the undergraduate who have a literary bent.

Shaver Chosen for Position on Life

At meetings of Pi Delta Epsilon and of the Hamilton Life board held after Chapel this morning, Jerome C. Shaver, '34, was elected Assistant Business Manager of Hamilton Life for 1932-33 on the basis of a competition that has been going on since before the Christmas Recess. L. J. Barden was the only other competitor remaining until the end, but Shaver secured more points in getting advertisements and in general interest, although Barden was first in subscription collections. Shaver will automatically become business manager for 1933-34.

PI DELTS HOLD ELECTION AND INDUCT NINE

Hosmer, Diggs, Schilz, and Work to Head Honorary Fraternity

Pi Delta Epsilon, the honorary collegiate journalistic fraternity, elected Howard C. Hosmer, president for the year 1932-33; Robert M. Diggs, vice-president; Herman F. Schilz, secretary, and Henry H. Work, treasurer at its annual induction meeting, which was held Friday night at Emerson Hall. A plan was thoroughly discussed for offering a club rate for subscriptions to Hamilton Life, the "Hamiltonian," the "Hamilton Literary Magazine", and the "Royal Gaboon".

Pi Delta Epsilon inducted nine men at the meeting. The men admitted were Odin M. Fredman, '32, Robert M. Diggs, Elmore S. McKechnie, Herman F. Schilz, Harold W. Symonds, and Henry H. Work, all of the class of 1933, and Louis G. Katz, Wesley D. Hamilton, and Robert C. Waddell, all of 1934.

The plan for offering all of the Hill publications except the "Handbook" for one price was discussed by Benjamin J. Stone, '32, who has been interested in the plan and has worked out a satisfactory rate. The club plan and the expense account of such a system was studied by the various Pi Delts who are managers of Hill publications.

D.U.'s and Dekes Are Mushball Finalists

Routing the Lambda Chi team in the late innings to win by a 9-4 score Monday, the Deke baseball team advanced into the final round of interfraternity play. Delta Upsilon, champion of league A, will meet the Dekes in the championship game tomorrow.

Numerous Deke errors enabled the Lambda Chis to pile up an early inning advantage. Several hits including a home run by McKenzie in the sixth sent the Dekes into the lead. Two runs in the seventh made a Deke victory certain.

In league A, composed of Sigma Phi, Alpha Delta Phi, Delta Upsilon, Theta Delta Chi, and Decagon, Delta Upsilon has defeated all opponents with Decagon ranking second place. Although all scheduled games have not been played, Alpha Delta Phi has lost to Theta Delta Chi, and Sigma Phi has been defeated by Decagon.

Play in B league was largely a struggle for honors between Delta Kappa Epsilon and the Emerson Literary Society. The Dekes took the division championship by defeating E. L. S., 4-3. In the preliminary games Chi Psi was victorious over Psi Upsilon only to lose to the Emersonians and the Dekes.

Lambda Chi Alpha is the victor of the C league which included Chi Beta Sigma, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and the Neutrals. They won all games with the Neutrals taking second place, and Chi Beta Sigma third.

'HAMILTONIAN' TO APPEAR ON HILL THIS WEEK

Annual Features Writings of Famous Authors Who Are Alumni

ART THEME ATTRACTIVE

Medieval Motif Is Carried Throughout Entire Year Book

The "1933 Hamiltonian", containing, in addition to the regular record of student activities of the past year, a comprehensive anthology of the writings of eight leading authors, now living, who are graduates of Hamilton College, will be placed on sale this week, probably on Thursday or Friday, and may be obtained through the College Store, Philip W. Schleit, business manager, or freshmen competitors for future business staffs.

The board of editors of the yearbook has been exceedingly fortunate in securing contributions for the feature section of the book from internationally known writers who have been undergraduates at Hamilton College. The art theme of the annual is medieval throughout, depicting monks and scribes of the middle ages, and the theme is carried throughout the book to correspond with the various divisions and sections of the book such as administration, classes, activities, fraternities, athletics, etc.

An attractive eight-page view section showing the beauties of the Hamilton campus in two colors is also a feature of the publication.

Clinton Scollard, '81, famous lyric poet, is represented in the "1933 Hamiltonian" by a considerable number of his better known lyric

Madrigal Choir Delights Small Audience Sunday

Under the direction of Professor Berrian R. Shute, the Madrigal Choir of Utica presented a program of Elizabethan melody at Sigma Phi Place on Sunday evening. The choir is composed of ten solo voices,—four sopranos and two voices each to carry the other three parts.

The madrigals of the program, which, with one or two exceptions, were all written within the period between 1599-1624, found an audience which made up for its lack of numbers by its appreciation and enthusiasm. Sung without accompaniment, the dominant feature of this type of music is the counterpoint and imitation among the various voices. They were first sung as chorals by the English people during the reawakening of culture in the Elizabethan era, and the words are for the most part of a lyric quality.

The first group of four numbers dealt with religious themes and was rendered accurately and with expression. The sopranos did not dominate the melody, but allowed the accompanying themes to be brought out with skill and delicacy.

The following two groups dealt with more secular themes of a pastoral nature, and the choir was forced to repeat an especially pleasing number, Byrd's "Tho Amaryllis Dance in Green."

The singers showed the result of careful training, and the attacks and releases were done with masterly precision. The choir directed by Professor Shute is composed of the following members: Sopranos: Doris Nash Wortman, Ruth Bedford Watts, Mae Casey McCormick, Louise Day Trumbore; Altos: Eleanor Johnson, Frances M. Wheeler; Tenors: George Dorrance, Arthur O'Hanlon; Bases: John G. Jones, Willard B. Marsh.

Alumni Invited to Enter Golf Tourney

Plans are being made for holding the annual Alumni Golf Tournament during Commencement Week, for which the McGregor Prize is regularly awarded. Both individual and class championships are determined. All alumni are invited to enter, and a large list is expected, as the event is growing annually in size, and is becoming one of the most popular features of the Commencement activities. Last year the individual championship was won by Franklin B. Mead, Jr., '30, and the class title went to the Class of 1930.

BUFF AND BLUE NINE DEFEATED TWICE ON TRIP

Wins from Oberlin Before Losing Games to Mass. State and Union

Hamilton's baseball team met defeat twice over the week-end, losing to Massachusetts State, 11 to 5, at Amherst, Mass., on Friday, and bowing to Union in the annual struggle, by a 12 to 6 count at Schenectady the following day. The Buff and Blue's second victory of the season came on Thursday when it plastered a 6 to 3 defeat on Oberlin College of Ohio, in a well-played game on the Hill Diamond.

In both the Massachusetts State and Union games, Hamilton outhit its opponents, but failed to connect with men on base. Union made fifteen hits to Hamilton's seventeen, while Massachusetts connected for ten hits, one less than Hamilton. In the Oberlin game, Captain Harvey allowed the visitors only four scattered singles, while Hamilton made seven hits, including a home run by Crowell and Scarpitto's triple.

Mass State Scores Four

Ollikainen was the batting star of the week-end trip, getting seven hits in ten times at bat. Scarpitto made four hits in the last two games.

In the Friday game, Hamilton scored first in the second inning, after DeLaFleur held down the opposition in the first. However, the home team came back in the next frame to score four runs and make victory secure. In this inning, Crowell singled and went to third on errors, scoring on a misplay on Fay's grounder. The winner's four runs came as a result of an error, a sacrifice, two singles and a walk.

The Buff and Blue came within one run of a tie in the next frame. Scarpitto led off with a single and was sacrificed to second by Harvey. Ollikainen singled to score Scarpitto, and Crowell's hit brought Ollikainen home. The victors scored in the fourth, fifth, and sixth, while Hamilton added two more in the final inning when Harding and Harvey doubled, and Creighton and Scarpitto singled.

DeLaFleur left the box in the third inning, and was replaced by Edwards, who hurled for three innings. He gave way to Creighton in the sixth, who showed some good form on the mound.

Hamilton Gets Runs

Although making seventeen hits, Hamilton failed to make them at the right time, and as a result Union took a decision in the sixty-first game between the two teams. Hamilton made two runs in the second to start the scoring, but Union tallied twice in its half, and three more in the third to take a lead whch it never relinquished. Crawford Douglass started pitching for Hamilton, but was considerably ill at ease on the high Union mound, and was later replaced by Creighton, who for the second day did a good relief job, and by Harvey.

Hamilton's runs in the second came on two hits and an error.

JUNIORS GIVEN SINGING TROPHY

"Alexander Hamilton" Prize Song in Annual Interclass Contest

Singing on the steps and porch of the Hall of Philosophy yesterday evening, the class of 1933 under the leadership of James T. Heyl, again tunefully outdid the other three classes to win their second cup in the annual Interclass Sing.

Incorporating beautiful harmony into their numbers, the juniors managed to make themselves the class to which it was "most expedient" for the judges, Professors Paul A. Fancher and A. P. Saunders, and Mrs. B. C. Patterson, to award the cup.

The prize song chosen this year was "Alexander Hamilton" with music by Professor Fancher. It is a song very rarely used and for this reason it was chosen. Its vigorous melody and amusing lines deserve a place in the college's present day repertoire.

While the other classes sang ably enough, the juniors, after several weeks of practice among its choir members, had developed excellent harmony, tone, and well balanced dynamics, making their renditions superior to those of the other classes. Besides the prize song the juniors sang the Yale song, "Bingo", and "Gather Close Ye Boys and Men", one of the College's favorites.

The seniors, directed by Robert G. Phelps, stood in front of the library to sing their three songs, which were the prize song, "Bright Hamilton", and "Fair Hamilton". Although the harmony developed by the seniors was good, it was not so well balanced as that of the juniors.

Of the three senior songs, "Fair Hamilton" was particularly well done. Its haunting strains hummed into the night air seem typical of Hamilton. The last line, "We pledge to thee our loyalty, fair Hamilton," is especially appropriate to a class shortly to graduate.

Under the direction of Coleman Burke, the class of 1934, standing in front of the Hall of Languages, sang "We Come to Hang Oui Bannets" as their "surprise song" "Alexander Hamilton", and "Lord Geoffrey Amherst" for their other choice song.

The sophomores had songs perhaps the best adapted to college sngng, and they sang them with gusto and well modulated dynamics, but rather weak parts.

Singing from the steps of Root Hall, the freshmen, led by Judson B. Hall, gave the prize song, the Cornell alma mater, "Far above Cayuga's Waters", and "Oh, Hamilton", last year's prize song. Although rather weak on the parts, the freshmen sang capably, doing the Hamilton songs lustily and humming the second stanza and chorus of the Cornell song very well.

TWO RECORDS FALL

Clark and Denman, High Point Scorers, Get Conference Marks

TAKE SEVEN FIRSTS

Pritchard, Denman, Stewart, Bellatty, and McGee Score 38 1-2 Points

Displaying great power and versatility, the Hamilton track team won its third consecutive Conference Championship at Rochester Saturday afternoon and completed an undefeated season boasting of victories over R. P. I., Rochester, and Union besides taking first place in the title meet.

Alfred, with 78 points, was only 6½ behind the Buff and Blue, threatening to win until the results of the broad jump were announced. First, second, third, and fifth places in this event would have given Alfred first place by a half-point margin. Rochester took third place with 28 points; St. Lawrence, fourth with 19½; Hobart, fifth with 11; and Niagara, sixth with 4.

Clark Outstanding Individual

Coach Winters' men proved their superiority by capturing seven first places in the fifteen events and by placing men in every event. In four events the Hamilton athletes won a majority of the points, getting 11 from first, second, and fourth in the quarter mile. Two new records were established, and another beaten but not al-

Hill Netmen Score Win, Tie, and Loss

Winning one match out of three, the tennis team last week met St. Lawrence to swamp them in a 6-0 victory, tied Colgate 3-3, and lost to Union in a 5-1 match, Murphy being the only Hill man to score.

Playing St. Lawrence here on Tuesday, May 17, the Hill netmen, fresh from their 9-0 victory over St. Stephen's, had little difficulty in trouncing their opponents in twelve straight sets. The team was considerably strengthened by the additions of Burke and Scanlan, who have both won permanent berths on the team as a result of their creditable work in the St. Stephen's matches.

Against Colgate in the match played here Thursday, May 19, the team put forth its best ability in an effort to retaliate for the defeat suffered at its opponent's hands earlier in the season. The match resulted in a 3-3 tie. In the previous match with the Maroon every point was hotly contested, the doubles being particularly close. Thursday's tie in part makes up for this.

In the Union match played at Schenectady on Saturday, May 21, the Hillmen slumped after their winning streak of the week before, losing the match 5-1. The absence of Young, veteran number two man, together with the strong competition offered by the Union team proved disasterous to the Hamilton players, who with the exception of Murphy were unable to tally.

Murphy in the first singles match defeated Hotaling, Union number one man, with no great difficulty in two sets 6-4, 6-1.

SAVE MONEY AND SAVE YOUR PUBLICATIONS

On Thursday morning in Chapel a proposition, sponsored by the Hamilton chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, national collegiate journalism fraternity, will be placed before the student body. The proposition contains the future maintainance and financial stability of Hamilton's four leading undergraduate publications, Hamilton Life, "The Hamilton Literary Magazine", "The Hamiltonian", and "The Royal Gaboon".

The proposition will be a request to the student body to support 300 blanket subscriptions at $7.50 each for the four above-mentioned publications, to be effective with the 1932-33 school year. A generous response from the student body to support the blanket subscription will mean that Hamilton publications will at last be raised to the level of stability and freedom from financial worry which has been sadly lacking in Hamilton for a long period of time.

There are few who realize the situation in which the College annual, "The Hamiltonian", has found itself in recent years. Staffs of the past two years have gone heavily into debt and have had to pay large sums from their own pockets simply because the student body would not back annuals of which Hamilton could well afford to be proud. The books have not been pretentious but have been more or less in accordanc with the conservative policy under which the College operates generally. However, unless the student body agrees decisively enough to support the proposed plan of paying $7.50 for the four publications a year, there will undoubtedly be no more year books representing Hamilton College.

The Board of Trustees will aparently not sponsor the placing of such a tax on the college bill of every student such as is done in many other institutions. Such an action would, of course, automatically secure a comfortable financial budget for every publication. But the proposed blanket subscription idea will work the same effect if supported by 300 undergraduates.

At the present rate of subscription a man subscribing to each of the four publications in one year would pay $11.50. Under the new plan, he would save four dollars and yet be insured prompt delivery of his magazine, or paper, or book, in what should be an improved quality, since the publications would then be able to do themselves justice.

If the present staff of the College annual, the "1933 Hamiltonian" does not succeed in selling 250 copies of the book, which will be on sale on the Hill this week, the future of the yearbook will be an exceedingly precarious one, that is, if the student body does not agree to support the proposition for a blanket subscription covering the four main campus publications. It is high time that Hamilton College came to the rescue of its publcations and their staffs. Quality in the past has been excellent. Finances have been poor. An opportunity is now offered the student body to save its publications either from discontinuation in one or two instances or from lack of men to carry on the work, worried financially and discouraged through the lack of support.

Play Reaches Semi-Finals In Spring Golf Tourney

The match play in the annual college golf tournament has reached the semi-final round with a very few upsets in either flight, five of the eight seeded players reaching that round. Those reaching the semi-final round in the championship flight are George Decker, Percy Saunders, John Dixon, and Ted Massoth, while those surviving in the second flight are Paul Bremer, Robert Stackel , Richard Reed, and Harry Scheel.

The matches are scheduled for eighteen holes and are played in accordance with winter rules. In the first round all but two of the seeded players won. McKenzie defeated Palen 5 and 4, while Dick Reed scored his first upset when he won from Ferry 3 and 2 in the second group. In the second round Scheel scored an upset when he won from Hubbell 2 and 1.

The summaries:

Appointees Named for McKinney Declamation

President Ferry announced at Chapel this morning the appointments for the annual McKinney Prize Declamation contest as approved by the Faculty at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon. A foundation of $700 by the late Charles McKinney provides book prizes for two men in each of the three lower classes. Four men from each class have been chosen to compete for these prizes. The contest is to be held in the Chapel on the Friday preceding Commencement. The appointees are: Class of 1933: Robert E. Brownlee, Thomas G. Robertson, William F. Tracy, and Wheaton P. Webb; Class of 1934: Jarrett H. Folley, John G. Moses, William T. Noon, and Howard B. White; Class of 1935: Joseph D. M. Ahearn, Ralph T. Haas, Hugh R. Jones, and Sol M. Linowitz.

TENNIS TEAM TO MEET SPRINGFIELD

The tennis team will play its tenth and last game of the season when it meets Springfield College here on May 27. The Massachusetts team is taking an extensive trip during which it will play Colgate, Syracuse, and perhaps Cornell as well as Hamilton.

This match will be played on the same scheme as the last ones have been, the team composed of six men instead of four as was the case at the beginning of the season. Coach Gelas is at present experimenting to determine the best positions of his men. Burke, recently added to the team, played number three position, but after the Union match there may be a change so as to better match the men with the hub state aggregation.

BUFF AND BLUE NINE IS DEFEATED TWICE

Harvey Beats Oberlin

Three Hamilton runs in the ninth were scored on two errors, and singles by Ollikainen and Crowell. In this game Hamilton had sixteen men left on base, to Union's nine. In the Massachusetts game, there were ten Hamilton men left on base. Ollikainen made four hits against Union, while Creighton made two, including a double. Ready, Crowell, Harvey, and Scarpitto also connected safely twive.

Oberlin, meeting Hamilton in its first game on a three-day eastern tour, met defeat, 6 to 3, in a hard-played contest. Held to four hits by Harvey, the visitors failed to take advantage of eight Hamilton errors. Hamilton made seven hits off Giddings. In addition to Crowell's home run, Ruth connected for a four-bagger for Oberlin.

The Buckeye nine took a one run lead in the second, but Hamilton tied the score in the third when Smith walked, and rode in on Scarpitto's triple to deep left. Oberlin quickly scored again in the fourth when Yoakan came home on a hard single to center, when Crowell misjudged the bounce. In the same frame, Hamilton scored twice when Ollikainen walked, reached second, on a sacrifice, and came home on Crowell's homer to deep center, giving the Buff and Blue a three to two lead.

Harding's single in the sixth scored Alberico, and in the seventh, Fay, Scarpitto, Ollikainen, and Alberico scored two more runs for Hamilton with clean hits. Ruth hit his home run over Harding's head in right field to start the eighth, but in the last inning fanned to end the game.

Both Giddings, the Oberlin twirler, and Harvey fanned seven men, The former walked three and Harvey five. Ollikainen, Alberico, and Crowell excelled for Hamilton in this game.

FAY TO HEAD CHARLATANS

Popular Junior Selected by Dramatic Organization; Officers Chosen

At a meeting of the Charlatans held on Friday, May 20, Robert L. Fay, '33, was chosen to lead the Hill dramatic organization for the coming year. A list of officers and players entitled to the Charlatan key submitted by the nominating committee was approved by the organization.

The executives named for the 1932-33 season are: vice-president, Michael J. Timko, '33; custodian, William T. Noon, '34; and the Executive Committee, Robert L. Fay, '33, John J. Walsh, '32 and William G. Roehrick, '34. The business manager for the coming year will be Thomas G. Robertson, '33. The staging of the productions will be under Richard J. Redmond, '33.

Charlatan keys have been recommended for the following men: John H. Mangan, Samuel J. Holt, Jerome B. Fisher, all '32; Richard J. Redmond, Edmund A. Merriam, Waterman Baldwin, Robert Lamont, and Chauncey D. Cowles, of the class of '33; William T. Noon and David Riddle, '34; and J. D. Matthew Ahearn, Ralph T. Haas, and John L. Brown, all of '35.

Fay, the newly elected president, has been prominent in Hill dramatic productions for the past three years, having held prominent roles in the three major productions of the period, "The Inspector General," "Journey's End," and "The Front Page." Fay was also a member of the varsity basketball squad during the past season and is a member of the baseball team. He won a football letter in 1931. He is a member of D. T. Quadrangle, and Was Los and is affiliated with the Psi Upsilon fraternity.

Timko, the vice-president for the coming year, was varsity center on the football team and is a member of the Emerson Literary Society.

The Charlatans will close a remarkably successful season under John J. Walsh, '32, with a presentation of the play, "The Perfect Alibi," at Commencement time. Plays featured during the year were "The Front Page," and three one-act plays, "Brothers-in-Arms," "Moonshine," and "If Men Played Bridge Like Women." Prospects for the future look exceptionally bright with the return of several underclassmen of dramatic experience.

"Royal Gaboon" and "Lit" to Be Issued At Commencement

With the end of the college year in sight the newly elected editors of the "Hamilton Literary Magazine" and the "Royal Gaboon" are preparing final issues to appear shortly before Commencement. With the material that is at present accepted both publications give promise of being particularly successful.

Although plans are at present incomplete the "Hamilton Literary Magazine" will contain poetry from C. Lafayette Todd, '33 and Willian C. Roehrick, '34. A short story has also been contributed by Howard C. Hosmer, '33, and a critical study of Lafcadio Hearn has been submitted by John L. Brown, '35. Perhaps the most interesting feature of the publication is "Save My Child" by William Sloane, '32, which has been chosen for this year's Charlatan Prize Play award.

The "Royal Gaboon" appears as the first issue under the editorship of Howard C. Hosmer, '33. It pays tribute to a lamented campus character, "Cholly", through an elegy composed by Todd. "Electra Becomes Maudlin" is a highly amusing contribution by Schilz. Another important feature of the "Royal Gaboon" is the unexpected reappearance of last year's hero, Mr. Brucklebanks.

Oberlin Nine Guests Of Two Hill Groups

The Varsity H Club held its first meeting since Easter on Thursday evening, when it held a smoker for the Oberlin baseball team at the Alpha Delta Phi Hall. The Oberlin team was entertained by the Hamilton team at the Delta Kappa Epsilon House for dinner.

The smoker was held on the Alpha Delta Phi lawn until after sundown, when it was moved indoors. This is the first team since the close of the hockey season which has spent an evening on the Hill. The lack of teams which have planned a stopover on the Hill during the spring has been noticeable.

BASEBALL TEAM FACES CLARKSON

Last Game of Season Will Prove Fast; Engineers Show Considerable Snap

Closing a season with only two wins to its credit, the Hamilton nine will face the strong Clarkson Tech aggregation here Thursday afternoon. After a weak start the Hill squad has come along fast and should give the visitors plenty of opposition. Captain Harvey or Douglass will draw the mound assignment for Hamilton, while Donald will probably start in the box for the Engineers.

After trouncing the Ithaca School of Physical Education by a 9-2 score in its opening game, the Clarkson nine was forced to lay idle for some time due to bad weather conditions. Thursday at Colgate the Engineers dropped a 14-4 decision when the defense crumbled in the later stages of the game.

Coach Weber's men will be out to avenge the two defeats suffered at the hands of the northerners last season. Since 1929, when the Hill squad lost by a 3-1 score, Hamilton has been unable to chalk up a victory over the Clarkson team. Last year's 6-2 and 12-6 setbacks were both hurled by Donald, who will be opposing the Buff and Blue for the third straight year in Thursday's game.

Zimber, veteran back-stop of the Engineers, cracked out a triple and two singles at Colgate to lead his team at bat against the Maroon. Marshall, speedy left fielder, and Steeves, shortstop, are playing their third year of varsity ball.

McKinney Prize Debate To Be Held Tomorrow

The Sixty-fourth annual McKinney Prize Debate will be held in the Colege Chapel at eight o'clock tomorrow night. The participants, all seniors chosen for their records in debating, will argue the question of the re-election of Herbert Hoover as President of the United States. Samuel J. Holt, Roy L. Smith, and Arthur H. Stein will speak on the affirmative, while Sidney S. Glazer, Edward G. Hooks, and Jack W. Hummer will uphold the negative.

The judges will be Paul B. Williams, '08, Leo O. Coupe, '10, Robert O. A. Burns, '10, T. Bartle Gorman, '20, and George Schiro, '26. Advance speeches are to be ten minutes in length and rebuttals five minutes. No notes may be used during advance speeches, and only notes made during the debate may be used in rebuttal.

poems. Samuel Hopkins Adams, '91, well-known author of novels and short stories, will be represented by "The Long Tryst", a story of old Hamilton, the scenes of which are laid in the College and this vicinity.

Ezra Pound, internationally famous poet, who was graduated from Hamilton with the class of 1905, has contributed a group of his translations, recently published, of the poetry of the Italian poet, Guido Cavalcanti, a contemporary of Dante.

Alexander Wollcott, '09, well-known dramatic critic and writer of short stories, biographies, and memoires, has consented to the publication of an amusing sketch, entitled "Histoire de France", which has been reprinted from a number of the "New Yorker" magazine.

Harry Esty Dounce, '10, famous essayist and journalist, is the author of "Some nonsense About a Dog", which is rated by Christopher Morley as one of the greatest American essays. The owners of the copyright have consented to the use of this essay in the "1932 Hamiltonian".

M. Karl Wisehart, '11, author of several books of fiction and religious survey, will be represented in the yearbook by "Twinkle", a biographical sketch of the late Dr. Peters, who maintained the astronomical observatory on the campus for many years.

Undergraduate poems of John VanAlstyne Weaver of the class of 1914 will also appear in the year book. There will be in addition a humorous short story, "The Russian Wolfhound", written especially for the "1933 Hamiltonian" by Joseph Vogel, a member of the class of 1924, one of the most promising of young American writers of the present day, and an associate editor and contributor to several magazines of international scope.

The "1933 Hamiltonian" should prove a valuable book to its owner not only for the record it contains of the activities of the College and undergraduates during the past year but also for its comprehensive anthology of writings produced by Hamilton men who have succeeded as authors.

FACULTY AND STUDENTS AT UTICA REPEAL DINNER

Vivid accounts of the "drink craze" among modern youth were presented to the many students and members of the college faculty and 500 other guests who attended the "repeal week" banquet of the Oneida County Branch, Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform, in Hotel Utica Thursday night.

The following members of the faculty attended the banquet which was the first of a series to be sponsored by the "wet" organization: President and Mrs. Frederick C. Ferry, Professor and Mrs. Willard B. Marsh, Professor and Mrs. Calvin L. Lewis, Professor and Mrs. Arthur P. Saunders, Professor and Mrs. Paul A. Fancher, Professor and Mrs. Robert B. Rudd, Professor Ralph C. Super, Professor and Mrs. Walter H. Laves, Professor and Mrs. Albert I. Prettyman, Professor and Mrs. Boyd C. Patterson, Wallace Johnson, and Donovan Meredith.

The faculty representation far outnumbered the delegation from the Hamilton College student body.

RUNNERS WIN THIRD TITLE

lowed because of the wind velocity. Denman and Sprague both broke the old record in the 440. Denman's new mark is 51.5, while Sprague was clocked at 51.8, a tenth second better than the old record.

Clark, of Alfred, who was the individual star of the meet, cleared 11 ft., 9 2-5 in. in the pole vault, topping the old mark by 2 2-5 inches. Besides winning this event, Clark took a first in the broad jump, second in the high jump, and third in the 100-yard dash for a total of 17 points.

Denman Wins Twice

Bellatty, in retaining his title as Conference champion in the 220-yard low hurdles, turned in a time of 25.4 seconds, 3-10 of a second better than the record, but this was not allowed to stand as a mark because of the aid received from the wind which swept down the track.

Denman was the outstanding individual on the Hamilton team, winning both the 440 and 220 in sensational sprints, and tying for fourth place in the high jump and running a leg of the mile relay. Other first place winners for the Buff and Blue were Captain Pritchard, who walked away with both the mile and two-mile runs, Stewart, who scored one of the biggest upsets of the meet by winning the high hurdles nearly ten yards ahead of the field, Bellatty, who retained his low hurdle title and also took fourth in the quarter, and McGee, who won the discus.

In addition to 7 first places, the Hillmen won 5 seconds, 3 thirds, 7½ fourths, and 5½ fifths. This ability to win a total of 28 places, and especially to gain an 11 point lead on Alfred in fourth places served to counteract the effect of the threat of the challengers, who scored 44½ of their points on seconds and thirds. The success of every Hamilton man placing was of vital importnace in the final outcome of the meet, as a difference of only 6½ points could be swung the other way by less than the failure of two of the Hill's fourth place men in events in which Alfred had both fifth and sixth places.

The summary:

One-mile run—Won by Pritchard, Hamilton; second, Warde, Alfred; third, Lyons, Alfred; fourth Campbell, Hamilton; fifth, Roe, Alfred. Time—4:32.2.

440-yard run—Won by Denman, Hamilton; second Sprague, Hamilton; third, Graham, Alfred; fourth, Bellatty, Hamilton; fifth, Merck, Alfred. Time—51.5 (New N. Y. S. I. A. C. record).

880-yard run—Won by Vance, Alfred; second, Wessels, Alfred; third Wolslegel, Rochester; fourth, Poppe, Hamilton; fifth, Moore, St. Lawrence. Time—2.02.8.

220-yard dash—Won by Denman, Hamilton; second, Ryskind, Alfred; third Ruland, Hamilton; fourth, Bull, Hamilton; fifth, Obourne, Alfred. Time—22.2.

SUBSCRIPTION PLAN PROPOSED

and business managers who have spent their time in producing publications of excellent quality. The "Hamiltonian" has been particularly effected. The book has gone heavily into debt in the last two years at least and unless 250 subscriptions are secured for the present book, the "1933 Hamiltonian", which will be on sale this week, the future for the annual is decidedly doubtful unless the club subscription plan is supported by the student body.

Advertising Also Helps

If 300 subscriptions are secured under the blanket subscription position, the apportionment to the four publications would be as follows: Hamilton Life, $625 (this is $125 less than is received by Life regularly through the present system); the "Royal Gaboon", $200; the "Hamiltonian", $1100; and the "Hamilton Literary Magazine", $300, making a total of $2,250 to be used according to the apportionment by the four publications. The "Hamiltonian", naturally the most expensive to pubilsh, under the new plan would have to obtain $700 through advertisements and other channels. Under the new plan, sponsored by Pi Delta Epsilon, the yearbook would be resticted to an expenditure of $1800 each year.

"Royal Gaboon", under the proposed plan would have to obtain $1800 worth of advertisements, since the cost of producing six issues of the magazine each year totals approximately $2,000. Money obtained for advertisements in Hamilton Life would go to the editorial and business staff of that publication. The same will apply to the "Hamilton Literary Magazine", although advertising does not play such an important part as do subscriptions in the maintainance of that magazine.

Under the proposed club subscription rate, and with the assistance of advertising, Hamilton Life would receive $625 in addition to the receipts from advertising contracts, the Hamilton Literary Magazine would receive $300, the "Royal Gaboon" would operate on $2,000, and the "Hamiltonian" would be restricted to $1800 but would be assured of enough subscriptions to keep its staff out of debt and worry.

Should the student body act favorably to support the 300 blanket snubscriptions, Hamilton publications in the future would be assured excellent financial standing, the year book would be saved from discontinuation, and the present unfair situation of finances would be cleared up.

Every student is urged to think the proposition over seriously and to be able to cast a vote on Thursday morning in all fairness to Hamilton College publications.

In the best families (or any others for the matter) that doesn't happen nowadays. Hence the United States Air Corps offers some attractive inducements to you college students for whom it has built a $10,000,000 institution at San Antonio, Texas, where they teach you to fly and while you are learning:

Pay you a salary of $75.00 per month. Pay your living expenses.

Supply you (free, of course) with snappy, tailor-made, sky blue uniforms.

Grant you the social and military privileges of potential officers.

Pay your traveling expenses from your home to the new field at San Antonio. 700 men are taken in each year. The course requires a year to complete and includes over 200 hours of solo flying. Those who stay the full year are commissioned as Lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserve.

If you don't like the training you may resign at any time. For example:

Should you stay three months and then resign you will receive $225.00 cash, your round trip expenses from your home to San Antonio, and about 50 hours of solo flying.

The service and associations of the Air Corps gives its a very real distinction and a very noticeable breadth and poise. If you have applied and are ready to go, we have compiled information and tips giving you inside angles and dope that will be invaluable when you arrive at the field. If you haven't applied yet then by all means get our information. We can tell you the entrance procedure and certain twists that make your getting in easier and quicker. DO YOU INHALE?

A frank discussion at last on a subject that has long been "taboo"

"LET sleeping dogs lie!" So said the cigarette trade when first we raised the subject of inhaling. But dodging an important issue is not Lucky Strike's policy!

Do you inhale? That question is vitally important . . . for every smoker inhales—knowingly or unknowingly. Every smoker breathes in some part of the smoke he or she draws out of a cigarette! And the delicate membranes of your throat demand that your smoke be pure, clean—free of certain impurities!

No wonder Lucky Strike dares to raise this vital question! For Luckies bring you the protection you want . . . because Luckies' famous purifying process removes certain impurities concealed in every tobacco leaf. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!

So, whether you inhale knowingly or unknowingly, safeguard those delicate membranes!
